WE'VE STARTED ANOTHER YEAR!

Last Sunday, the 5th of May, we at Hartman Pharmacy started our 59th year in Sierra Madre at 29 North Baldwin. Although this is the same building and address in which we started our Pharmacy, it is quite different now than in 1910. It is also true that the "today's" medications and the educational requirements to purvey them are surely different. In 1910 the Educational Degree was a PhG (Graduate in Pharmacy) and was earned in two years, today it requires SIX years and the degree is Doctor of Pharmacy.

There have been, and will be, many changes and new challenges for all the Health Team and we at Hartman Pharmacy will keep abreast of them through constant schooling, seminars and reading. We must, and will, so that we may best serve our friends and patrons.

In our near future we will see many dramatic breakthroughs in all the Medical Sciences... the heart transplant is just one. In the pharmaceutical field, one of the newest is the search for new ANTICANCER DRUGS from natural sources. Many of our most competent researchers are working on a myriad of plants, trying to find a substance that helps stop or eradicate this scourge. This is a long and tedious project when you consider that there are more than 500,000 higher plant species that may contain effective antitumor compounds.

We look forward to this next year with keen anticipation, and we welcome a visit with you whenever you are in town. Do feel free to bring us both your joys and your problems.

Rudolph R. Hartman

"I wouldn't want to be the mother of a teenager in our present times" was a remark that made me ponder hard and long. My first reaction was that I really wouldn't want to be a teenager if I had a choice in the matter.

True, the mother of a teenager is coping with a lot of problems that her mother before her did not have to face due to the outside influences that have infiltrated into our lives via news and magazine media plus the ever more dominant influence of television.

A mother of a teenager is up against a real battle to modernize her thoughts into today's trends and still try to come up with the right answers to the ever increasing moral issue that have become a part of our way of life.

Our mothers would speak guardedly about dope addiction but with no thought that their well reared children would ever come in contact with such a vile force and 99 chances out of 100 she was absolutely correct. She didn't have to put too much emphasis on the cause and effect because it literally didn't exist except in rare cases and in old-world opium dens. Drinking was only done by a select few and to say it was a social problem would be inaccurate.

Pre-marital sex was a natural handicap and a few got "caught" but it was definitely a small minority and the girls were usually whisked away to destinations unknown to stay with an aged aunt that needed her help.

Children were taught at their mother's knee to respect their elders and were allowed to develop in an easy pace with lots of family fun and guidance. Perhaps we were a frustrated bunch but no one told us and we didn't realize it. Life was sweet though certainly not as interesting as our children's lives today. We drifted through school and into colleges without too much thought as to whether we would make it. If we could afford it chances were good that we would make it and once there, there was an equally good chance that we would stay in and graduate.

We graduated on the eve of a war and suddenly there was a job for everyone. The men go off to fight and the women to back them up in factories and defense work of every sort, from selling bonds to driving busses, working in hospitals both here and abroad, or just tending the home fires. We were all in it together and we all did our part as best we knew how. When it was over we rebuilt our lives around still one more war and raised our families to face still another crisis.

It is a crisis of progress and it is bred in insecurity and unrest and advancing science. On one side we send our men into outer space to explore the unknown and on the other side we send them to fight and perhaps die in a world that is just as unknown to them. In our twenty years post-war prosperity we have been able to provide them with cars and privileges that were not ours to enjoy, we have because of our scientific advancement impressed them with the fact that success is a must and there is no time to lose.

Childhood comes in nursery school and from there on out it is the big push, push, push. Mothers of today can't hold their children back and they can not protect them. They must teach them very young that they will have to get out in the big race and learn to run with the rest. They can give them all the basic moral standards and pray that somehow what they have said is heard louder than the words they will hear in the arena of life in which they will compete.

No, I would not want to be a teenager now or sixteen years from now. I was born too early and learned too late, and I understand their rebellion too well. They'll one day find their way and in years to come they will probably be glad that they were born in their time and worrying about the life their children will have to face like their mothers before them.

George and June Fleming had a delightful weekend in Santa Barbara sharing with their daughter Sheryl the activities of "Parents Week" at the University of California campus. Sheryl has pledged Kappa Alpha Theta and they had many activities planned to make their parents' visit one long to remember.

There is much activity at the Kenneth Christianson home these days. They are busily preparing for a mother-daughter luncheon on May 18th sponsored by the "Robins" of the Cystic Fibrosis Guild.

The young girls are working. Please turn to Page 7

Braille Editions At Library

The Sierra Madre Public Library now has on display a Braille edition of the Camp Fire Girls' handbook. The system of raised dots to represent letters necessarily uses more space, and the same information that is in the regular handbook requires four volumes in Braille. The exhibit, on loan from the San Gabriel Valley Council of Camp Fire Girls, may be seen through May 10.

Registration For Summer Nursery School

Now is the time to register for the summer session at the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, according to Mrs. Lillian Burke, director. The dates of the summer session will be from June 18 through August 1. Children attending will go three days a week from 9 to 12, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Parents are urged to apply immediately.

There are still a few openings in some of the groups for the fall semester. Parents wishing to enroll their children for either the summer or fall semester, should stop in at the school office, 701 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., or phone 355-1655 for further information.

Happy days! Two little sisters now have a little brother! Kirsten (2½) and Nancy (1½) Springer's new brother was born on April 21 at St. Luke Hospital. Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Springer, named the 8 pound, 2 ounce boy Marc Steven.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. D. Earl Sandiforth and paternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Springer of Worthington, Ohio.

The Springers, residents of Sierra Madre since last August, live at 182 E. Mira Monte.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Shannon, 210 Canyon Ave., have a new baby girl born April 5 at St. Luke Hospital. The birth of Mary Elizabeth, who weighed 8 pounds on the nose, makes it an even eight for the Shannons. Other Shannon children are: Patricia, 13; Daniel, 12; Jean Marie, 10; Gerald, 8; Kevin, 7; Brian, 4; and Kathleen 3. With all the attention little Mary Elizabeth is getting, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon won't get a chance to spoil her.

Maternal grandmother, Mrs. Gerald Carew, must be a veritable angel! She came out from her home in Bronxville, New York, at Christmas and has been helping out ever since. Bless all grandmothers everywhere.

Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shannon Sr. of Danbury, Conn., plan on coming out to California for a visit in the near future.

Painting

On Friday, May 17, at 12 noon in Stratford House dining room a beginners class in oil painting will meet for instruction. Mrs. Clifford D. Ward, Arts and Crafts, director.

Mrs. O'Donnell demonstrated her custom paper mache works. She teaches in the public schools and invited members and guests to view her workshop called "Crafts in the Attic" to see what her many students have accomplished.

Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Bradley Brown from Arcadia and Mrs. Wells Pleas of Pasadena.

The Robins, Junior Guild of Cystic Fibrosis, under the direction of Mrs. Robert

Second Generation Sierra Madrean Shari Wingate Weds Michael Eing

MR. and MRS. MICHAEL JOSEPH EING
... nee Shari Anne Wingate

Miss Shari Anne Wingate, daughter of Mrs. Rowena Shipway Wingate of Sierra Madre, became the bride of Spec. 4 Michael Joseph Eing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Eing of Pasadena, on March 23 at Assumption of The Virgin Mary Catholic Church of Pasadena.

The lovely bride was radiant in a long gown of satin with a fitted lace bodice and long sleeves of silk organza and cuffs of lace. Her floor length, imported, silk illusion veil was held by a large lace bow. White cymbidium orchids and stephanotis comprised the bridal bouquet.

Miss Cindy Warden was maid of honor and wore a long, gold colored empire styled gown with a large matching bow as headpiece. She carried a large bouquet of yellow iris. Attending the bride as junior bridesmaids were her two younger sisters, Misses Corky and Tammy Wingate and her cousin, Miss Becky Shipway. The three young ladies wore the same style gown as the maid of honor only in silver and their bouquets were of deep blue iris.

Anoakia Campus Open For Summer Recreation

From eleven in the morning until four in the afternoon children will be absorbed in arts and crafts, athletic activity, nature study and creative drama in the summer program at Baxter-Anoakia.

Recreational swimming, tennis, basketball, soccer and baseball are included in the full scale program offered at the historic 19 acre campus on Foothill Blvd. in Arcadia.

The summer fun program will continue from 11 o'clock each day until 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The mornings at Baxter-Anoakia will be devoted to academic summer school. The academic sessions include both elementary and high school subjects. The recreation program is open only to children in grades one through nine. Children in these lower grades may enroll in both programs.

A large, well-trained staff insures a meaningful program with children participating in small groups for greatest benefits.

Enrollment in the summer program is now open; it is a limited enrollment and early application is advisable. The summer recreation program encompasses a six week period, June 19 to August 2, however, weekly enrollments are acceptable for families planning vacation trips.

Inquiries may be made at the school, 701 W. Foothill, Arcadia, phone 795-0750.

Annual Dinner Dance

International Holiday is the theme of Civic Club's annual spring dinner dance. Club members will attend in costume from different countries.

The date is May 25, with the affair being held at the Foothill Jewish Center in Arcadia. An international menu will be catered and music will be provided by the Rhythm Kings.

Profits from this project will benefit the Sierra Madre group requesting philanthropic aid from the Civic Club.

Letters To the Editor

Dear Editor:

The next time you go to the Sierra Madre Library, stop and look at the display case the Junior Historical Society has arranged. For a long time it has been discussed among the Senior Society, but leave it to our very aggressive Junior President Roy Doty to do something about it.

Nelle Vieira the sponsor of this group, who has lived here about 53 years says if the youth of our city keep on as they are doing they will be our up and coming Councilmen and believe me there will be no landmarks torn down or the real things and people that made this city famous will always be remembered.

They would like some new members. Anyone wanting to join, ages 12 to 15 years are welcome. Call either Roy Doty 355-8798 or Mrs. Vieira 355-0744. Meetings are once a month and refreshments are served. Interesting trips are planned for summer months.

You and Your Neighbors

by NANCY BRYAN

Mrs. R. Robert Evans and guests, Mrs. William Waite, Mrs. John Goodall and Mrs. Gerald Bryan journeyed to Hemet for the opening performance of "Ramona." In the evening, after the play, the foursome attended the "First Nighters" Dinner along with numerous others. Among the approximately 600 people at that marvelous repast besides officials of the Hemet community and interested citizens, were members of the cast who attended in costume, members of the production staff of the play, dignitaries — such as Ivy Baker Priest Stevens present treasurer of California and former treasurer of the United States — and representatives of 75 newspapers. It was the first time any of the ladies had seen the famous Ramona Pageant and they all agreed that it is something you shouldn't miss.

It was, indeed, a most delightful excursion.

On May 1, Joseph and Jeanette Gendron moved from their home at 3805 Shadow Grove Road to an apartment in Arcadia. They decided that with one of their three sons married and the other two not at home very often, they did not need so much room. Married son, Maurice and his wife are presently in Europe where Maurice is working on his thesis for a PhD in French language. Son, Jean — and that's Jean with a French pronunciation and sounds like "Jon" — is teaching in West Los Angeles, and other son, Dennis, who is in the US Marine Corps Reserves, is going to PCC and working part-time. Much luck to you all!

Former Sierra Madre resident, Mr. Frank Lovell, who is in and out of town for fun and business, celebrated his 75th birthday recently at the Elks Lodge meeting in Monrovia. Hope to be as young as Mr. Lovell when the 75 marker comes around. Happy birthday and many more!

24c Tax Rate Increase Seen

Supervisor Dorn Opposed
County Budget Increase

County Supervisor Warren Dorn recently termed the Chief Administrative Officer's $1.38 billion 1968-69 budget as "most excessive."

It must be cut — but I will vigorously oppose any moves to reduce or abandon protective services such as sheriff and fire," said Dorn.

The CAO's recommended budget calls for a 24-cent per $100 assessed valuation tax rate increase.

It states that, because of state-federal laws on welfare, the net increase to the county for welfare programs will be $11.5 million, or about 9 cents on the tax rate.

Dorn, describing the county as a "stepchild" of Sacramento and Washington, D.C. bureaucracies, termed the two "big brother" governments' welfare programs as "ridiculous, costly and awesome burdens on local property owners."

"These welfare programs should be directed by the government closest to the people. Currently, the county is forced to abide by the endless rules of the state and U.S."

He said that requests by county departments not providing mandatory services "will be thoroughly reviewed by myself and my office."

While terming the budget "too high," Dorn hailed the inclusion of 293 additional sheriff's deputies as a "major step in the battle against crime."

Several weeks ago, on his motion, the Board of Supervisors instructed the CAO to give "top priority" to more deputies.

"We are on the way to beefing up Sheriff Pichtess' excellent department — an absolute necessity for enforcement of laws in the county," declared Dorn.

He pointed out that it is estimated that during 1968-69, the department will handle more than 360,000 cases — an increase of 17,000 over 1967-68.

Also, Dorn announced that $200,000 is included in the proposed budget for land acquisition for a new Sheriff's substation in the Montrose area to replace the "antiquated" current facility.

Raoul and Betty Gagne, of 441 Santa Anita, are still in 7th heaven! Their Army son, Spec. 5, Dennis L. Gagne returned home from his year of duty in Viet Nam and with his wife Patricia, spent a couple of weeks with them, prior to his new assignment in San Francisco at the Presidio. The Gagnes have 4 other children, Raoul, Stephen, Kimberley and Marcia. Raoul, who will graduate from PHS this June, was selected by the Bank of America as the Most Outstanding Business Student of the year. He plans on attending PCC next fall after a summer of relaxing and working — no studying. Married daughter, Marcia Childress, lives in the Norwalk area and attend Cerritos College part time and a beauty college part time.

Other Gagne children, Stephen and Kimberley will be going into the ninth and fourth grades, respectively, next fall.

ing hard and long to make this the best luncheon they have ever had. I am sure they wouldn't mind my giving you a sneak preview of some of their plans. They are planning to decorate every terrace in the garden to represent a different country.

The fashion show will be modeled by some of the teenagers and is being shown by "The Place" on South Lake. In order to make it equally interesting for the mothers present they will have several more mature models with appealing fashions to win their praise. Tickets are still available for the nominal donation of $2.50. Those interested can contact Kim Christianson at 794-7222 or Julie Blackshaw at 798-3403. Hurry if you want to get in on the fun because the "Robins" functions are always a complete sell out.

Palm Desert was the place to go last weekend according to several of our hillite couples.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Narcowich slipped away for a weekend with their children, Joel, Nancy, and Gary. They go down to visit Marilyn's mother who has a home in the desert.

The Bill Sandbergs were also drawn by the warm desert weather. They went down to the Palm Desert Inn along with the Herbert Andersons of Aradia and the Lee Skarins of Sierra Madre, for a weekend of golfing. They were joined on the links by the Narcowichs which filled out their foursomes.

Mrs. Dom (Pat) Giangreorlo was hostess last week for her bridge club luncheon. On hand for the day were Mrs. William Olson, Mrs. Forrest Paxson, Mrs. John Farmer, Mrs. Tony O'Bland, Mrs. William Sapuding, Mrs. Gordon Wright, and Mrs. Don Hays.

Pat has been working diligently with a group of Rosemary Cottage Villa Guild members making boutique items for the coming Spring Fashion Show and luncheon that will be held on May 23. For further information regarding reservations you may contact Mrs. Sidney Parker at 797-8110.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klingerman spent last weekend in Huntington Beach visiting Ann and Bob Ginchich who have just recently moved down to their new home there.

There has been another robbery on Old House Road and I urge you once again to take all of the normal precautions to protect yourself. The police also request that if you note any unusual activity in the area, play to safe and call them or the resident to make sure all is well. They are examining all of the evidence and hope to apprehend the thieves in the very near future.

Last Armchair Program Of This Series To Be Presented By Friends of Library

An evening visiting New Zealand will feature the armchair program presented by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Yorba of Sierra Madre. They toured several weeks in this very beautiful country. So far as it is known, no other white man after the Dutch navigator, Tasman in 1642, visited the country until Captain Cook arrived on the islands in 1769. Systematic emigration from Europe to New Zealand began in 1839 and the English government took formal possession in January of 1840.

The highest volcano in the North Island is Mount Ruapehu. No country has so large a proportion of its area incorporated in national parks as New Zealand. Covering over 2,500,000 acres these reserves embrace a variety of scenery unmatched in any other park system of the world.

The outstanding feature of the Southern Island is called the Southern Alps which run from end to end near the western coast. The mountains reach a maximum elevation at Mount Cook which has the altitude of 12,349 feet. The scenic grandeur of the region is comparable to that of the European Alps. Because of the rain and winds there is sufficient moisture to foster everywhere a vegetation of uniform greenness that recalls the verdure of Ireland.

The largest city, Auckland, was enjoyed and is the seat of culture, the great university, art gallery, a fine library with a valuable collection of rare manuscripts, and a museum containing many Maori relics.

The Friends of the Sierra Madre Library invite the public to this program at Sierra Mesa Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 15. Admission is free.

"LOVE IS THE ANSWER"

Dial-for-prayer, 447-6162

Rev. Stevens' Sermon, 'Love Is the Answer'

On this special day honoring all mothers we remember that Jesus stressed love as the complete answer to life's problems. He knew and taught that loving is giving not taking. The more we give away, the more we have. "Love Is the Answer" is the subject of the lesson of Rev. Margaret M. Stevens, minister of the Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia. Take a friend to this non-denominational church, urges the minister. "The public is invited to unite with us. Infant and child care is provided during the service," points out Rev. Stevens, and continues with:

"Classes from pre-school through high school are conducted by dedicated teachers for children after a 15 minute worship service in the sanctuary. High school youth and young adults hold their meetings on the first and third Sunday evenings at 7:30.

Thursdays at 11 a.m. Rev. Stevens conducts a workshop in successful living. All women are warmly welcomed to this study class. There will be a guest speaker on May 9, Dr. Max Morrison, and his subject will be "The Capacity For Enjoying Life." There is a time of service and fellowship after the class. Take a friend and plan to say, is the invitation. On May 9 at 8 p.m. to which the friends of the church are invited. Dr. Frank E. Stranges will speak . . . his subject will be "U.F.O. and the Bible." "Dial 447-6162 to receive a blessing," urges Rev. Stevens.

Joint Service At Faith Lutheran

Armed Forces Day will be observed in conjunction with Mother's Day in the 10:30 worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive, Pasadena. The Rev. Armin W. Hesse, pastor, has entitled his address, "Some Motherly Characteristics," centering on Jochabed, the mother of Moses.

Honoring our men in uniform, the Senior Choir will sing, "God of Our Fathers." A special offering will be taken to assist the work of our chaplains. In preparation for this in-gathering each family of the church received a phonograph record that vividly explains the needs of our men in the service of our country.

The 9:15 Sunday morning Bible Class under the direction of Pastor Hesse will consider the subject, "Birth Control In Light of the Scriptures," while the Sunday school departments will hear the story, "Jesus Heals the Man of Bethesda."

Activities during the week include Sunday school staff at 7:30 on Tuesday evening; Midweek Bible Hour at 7:30 on Wednesday evening followed by the meeting of the Elders; and a joint Junior and Senior Choir rehearsal on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Kappa Delta To Install Officers

Retiring president, Mrs. Ralph Erickson of San Marino, will relinquish her gavel and preside over the ceremonies at the home of Mrs. Robert Beck, 206 Los Laureles, South Pasadena, on Tuesday, May 14.

Recipient of the gavel will be Mrs. Roland Carpenter of Altadena who was affiliated with Theta Sigma chapter of Kappa Delta at the University of Southern California.

THERE SHOULD BE A law against Bill Russell. Ask the Lakers. How can a 34-year old man swat away potential baskets like so many flies, play the go-go game with the Havliceks, Clarks, Hawkins, Howells and Wests and still have time to coach the team. That man is too much.

THE LAKERS DESERVED a better fate than to run into a man like Russell. Butch van Breda Kolff and his boys had a great year (62 wins and 35 losses counting playoff play) and were slightly less than sensational down the stretch where they turned in a 30-8 log. Maybe they would have been better off if the San Francisco Warriors had tested them more.

COME TO THINK OF IT, that John Havlicek isn't bad either. That guy is strictly perpetual motion on the basketball court.

IS THE JR. ROSE BOWL in deep dark trouble with the splitting of the CCAA?

City's Credit Jeopardized; Bills Paid

day would have been May 14. Checking with the General Telephone Company it was found that at intervals small payments had been made on an outstanding balance, and this repeated several times until the billing now stood at 120 days delinquent. The NCR book-keeping machine, on rental basis, was as far behind as February and March in receiving their payments. One stamp and stationery company had gone bankrupt, had placed the account with the city in the hands of collectors. The collectors notified the city that the account must be paid in 30 days in the amount of $477.88. The 30 days had long passed, but the bill was in the drawer. On and on were these accumulated unpaid bills, the most serious were the ones dating back over the past 8 to 10 months from April 1, 1968, and totaled in the vicinity of between $5,000 and $8,000. Other billing that had been received between April 1, and April 23 were also present and unpaid and the accumulated total had reached the proportion of some $15,000 to $17,000.

Further it was found that a billing in the amount of $637 had been paid twice, once in February and again in March. This check was retrieved from the creditor.

Acting City Administrator Martin ordered an immediate Warrant Register, clerk, listing all of the unpaid bills that stood against the City, together with all current billings received by May 2. It was necessary for the City Council to pay this Warrant Register on May 3 to salvage the credit of the City.

The Warrant Register presented to the Council Friday night was in the amount of $58,142.57 and by Resolution No. 2405 was ordered paid by the City Council. Since the preparation of the register some $10,000 in additional billings were received which will be paid at the meeting of May 14.

Acting City Administrator Martin stated that "no trend" was discovered, no reason was uncovered unless some one was attempting to set up a uniformity. Warrant registers since last August were noted as having run fairly consistent in the vicinity of $45,000 per period, and the fluctuation varied only slightly. Was someone trying to establish a trend of "level" that in the months ahead could point to this period and a statement be issued that the city transactions could hold fairly "level" . . . what a way to run a city.

It is little wonder that the City of Sierra Madre may be finding difficulty in securing bids on certain projects. It is a well known fact that we have on "time deposit", earning interest, around $400,000 in inactive funds.

Now we ask, Who? Not Why, but WHO ordered this method of operation? We are definite and firm in our belief that a "lone book-keeper" would not put this trend into operation. Finances were under the watchful eye of the City Clerk; but we can see absolutely no reason for her to start this trend; no purpose, unless she had instructions from others.

Your Acting City Administrator and City Attorney Charles Martin is flabbergasted. Your Mayor is beside himself from wonderment. The new City Council just cannot understand this method of operation. But all together they did do one thing. Friday evening they ordered all, everyone of the outstanding bills paid immediately.

Mayor Ralph Rule pledged to the people that he would search out the reason or reasons for this situation and will give the people a full report, and this should be soon, as the bookkeeper returned from vacation on May 6. She should have the answers.

Dr. R. Arnott Pulpit Guest
Dr. Robert Arnott, this Sunday's pulpit guest of the United Church of Christ in Sierra Madre, will speak about Mother's Day with a sermon entitled, "Are You Running a Hotel — or a Home?" at the 11:30 Sunday morning worship service. The Scripture reference is Ephesians 5:21 to 6:4.

The United Church Fellowship worship services are held at the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, Baldwin at Laurel, each Sunday at 11:30, and a weekly evening discussion group meets in homes of members. All are welcome to call 355-8342 or 355-4370 for more information.

Writing
On Monday, May 20, at 11:30 a.m. the Poetry and Creative Writing Section will meet in Stratford House. A salad luncheon will be served. Mrs. Christine Mills will discuss the Life and Love of Emily Dickinson. Miss Florence L. Swindell, director.

RTD

ARTIE DEE
Transportation Editor

My son was a good sized lad before he saw a real live ship. Now that's not as silly as it sounds, chances are, you haven't seen one for a while either. Better than seeing, why not ride one? Why not take a full blown ocean voyage? The Catalina Steamship Company operates the Big White Steamer daily to Catalina. Sound like fun? Well, it can be a peck of fun. Not only do you enjoy the boat ride, but Catalina isn't so bad either. Better than driving, take the RTD Line 37 from the Los Angeles terminal to the pier. No walking, no parking, just step off the bus and you're there. Send for a map and at timetable now and go to sea — or 27 miles of it, anyway.

I used to say that most folks wouldn't know a bargain if they fell over it. Since the RTD monthly pass came into existence, I don't say things like that any more. This is the kind of a deal you would expect from White Front or some other discount store. When you enjoy UNLIMITED one zone riding for 12 bucks a month (9 bucks for Senior Citizens) that's savings! Just think what this kind of riding would cost if you had to reach into the mattress for hard cash each day. Send for our folder on the monthly pass — these savings are for YOU!

The RTD line is kind of like a Hollywood tour. It travels along Sunset Boulevard to Pacific Palisades, going past some of the most expensive real estate in this part of the country. You'll see cities like Beverly Hills, Brentwood, Westwood and Pacific Palisades. In addition, you'll see the beautiful campus of UCLA, Will Rogers State Park and many other view points. Send for a timetable and map and take a one-day vacation on RTD.

Q. How do I get to Pico & Hill from Fair Oaks in South Pasadena? How much does it cost with a Student Privilege Card and how long does it take? R.W.

A. Catch the 67,68, 70, or 71 on Huntington Drive in South Pasadena, ride to 1st Street in Los Angeles and change to a 26 bus to Pico & Hill. The fare would be 30c with your Student Privilege Card.

Q. Where can I get a bus downtown about 11 p.m. to go to Monterey Park, Garvey & New Avenue? Mr. V.W.

A. Try the 63 bus from 7th and Spring. They run till 1:00 a.m., 7 days a week. I'll send you a timetable and a map.

Q. Is there a through bus from Anaheim to Corona? Mrs. W.J.P.

A. No. You will have to take the 58 line to Orange and the 59 to Corona.

Q. How can I get to Huntington Beach from Las Tunas and Rosemead? V.M.F.

A. Take the 52 line to 6th and Spring, walk two blocks east to the terminal and take the 55 bus to Huntington Beach. I'll send you a timetable and map.

Send your questions to Transportation Editor, Artie Dee, care of this newspaper. All questions will be answered in the column, or by mail. A system map will be sent FREE to each person writing in. NO STAMPS OR STAMPED ENVELOPES ARE NECESSARY.

Security First National Reviews Building Prospects

The year of 1967 was one of recovery for the Southern California homebuilding industry, Security First National Bank's Economic Research Department reported.

Rising from depressed levels in late 1966, the past year saw a total of 65,949 dwelling units authorized by permits. This resulted in an increase of 12% over 1966.

Of significance, according to Security Bank's report, was the fact that homebuilding activity in the Southland during 1967 was in a virtually uninterrupted up-trend throughout the year. On a quarter-to-quarter basis, activity rose from an annual rate of 46,300 dwelling units in the first quarter of 1967 to an annual rate of 83,000 units in the fourth period.

While the 1967 recovery was sharper than many analysts had predicted, Security Bank noted that the Federal Reserve engaged in an expansionary credit policy for most of the year and mortgage funds became available in greater volume.

Apparently the rising trends of 1967 have carried over into 1968. Security Bank said that in the first two months of this year, the seasonally adjusted rate based on cumulative data is equal to 77,500 dwelling units for the year.

Average permit values of both new single and multiple units in the Southern California area have been in a long-term rising trend. During 1967, average permit value per apartment unit was approximately $10,000, while for single family homes it was over $21,000.

These trends have prevailed during the opening months of 1968. Security Bank said. Values exclude the cost of land.

County-by-county value figures range from an average of $25,000 per single family unit in Los Angeles and Santa Barbara Counties to $13,000 in Kings County. The apartment average ranges from $16,000 in Los Angeles County to about $6,000 in San Bernardino, Imperial and San Luis Obispo Counties.

County trends for 1967 showed that nine of the 14 counties recorded higher levels of homebuilding over 1966. Gains ranged from 70% in San Diego County to 1% in Kings County.

Declines were reported for Arange (down 3%), San Bernardino, Riverside, Inyo and Tulare Counties.

A further recap of the year's homebuilding activity by counties shows that in Los Angeles County, 23,539 dwelling units were authorized in 1967, up 10% from 1966. Multiple units accounted for approximately 54% of the total. Security Bank added that unsold inventory of tract housing in the county currently is at its lowest point in several years.

While Orange County activity showed a slight decline in 1967, an improvement is taking place in early 1968. Authorizations in the opening months of 1968 are equivalent to an annual rate of 16,200 units, an increase of 30% over the 1967 pace. Multiples' activity is up 82% over the 1967 average, while tract housing conditions appear healthy.

San Diego County showed the most impressive gain in 1967 and early 1968 activity also is running high. During 1967, 12,633 dwelling units were authorized, 70% ahead of 1966.

Ventura County also reported an increase during 1967. Dwelling units authorized totaled 2,900, a gain of 11% above the 1966 level. Based on Security Bank's report, the local market is firming. Unsold tract housing inventory and apartment vacancy rates are improving.

In San Bernardino County, homebuilding activity was off in 1967, with apartment construction at a virtual standstill. However, in the first two months of 1968, more apartment units have been authorized than in the entire year of 1967.

Activity in Riverside County, as reported by Security Bank, shows that the reduced pace has carried into 1968. Declines in the unsold tract housing inventory has been modest and apartment vacancy rates are higher than in most counties.

June 1 the forest areas will be posted and we will enter the period that all of us fear . . . fire in our forest area.

— CT —
Course, as Chief Brown explained, we have one of the finest firefighting crews available. 24 men who have spent the winter drilling and practicing all methods of firefighting. Most of the men have spent an average of 10 hours a month, and it is exceedingly fortunate for Sierra Madre that we have such a fine crew . . . but

— CT —
Even the best of crews, the best equipment finds it exceedingly difficult to handle forest fires. Generally they are well on their way before crews and equipment can get into the area, and many times we find that 10 to 100 acres are involved when firefighters start their work.

— CT —
"We are down on our rainfall this year," states Chief Brown. "In fact at this time a year ago, we were running close to 28 inches and this year we are just barely over 13 inches, this of course makes the area twice as accessible to fire," he continued, and in closing his remarks he said . . . "do be doubly careful with fire, but at a moment's notice do call your fire department 353-1401. An extra five minutes start on a blaze can mean the difference between disaster and containment."

— CT —
Of course you want to remember . . . the fire that happens this summer is not the end of the catastrophe . . . after this then comes the fall rains and we receive the brunt of the summer fire with mud and debris into our streets and homes . . . do be careful, doubly so this year.

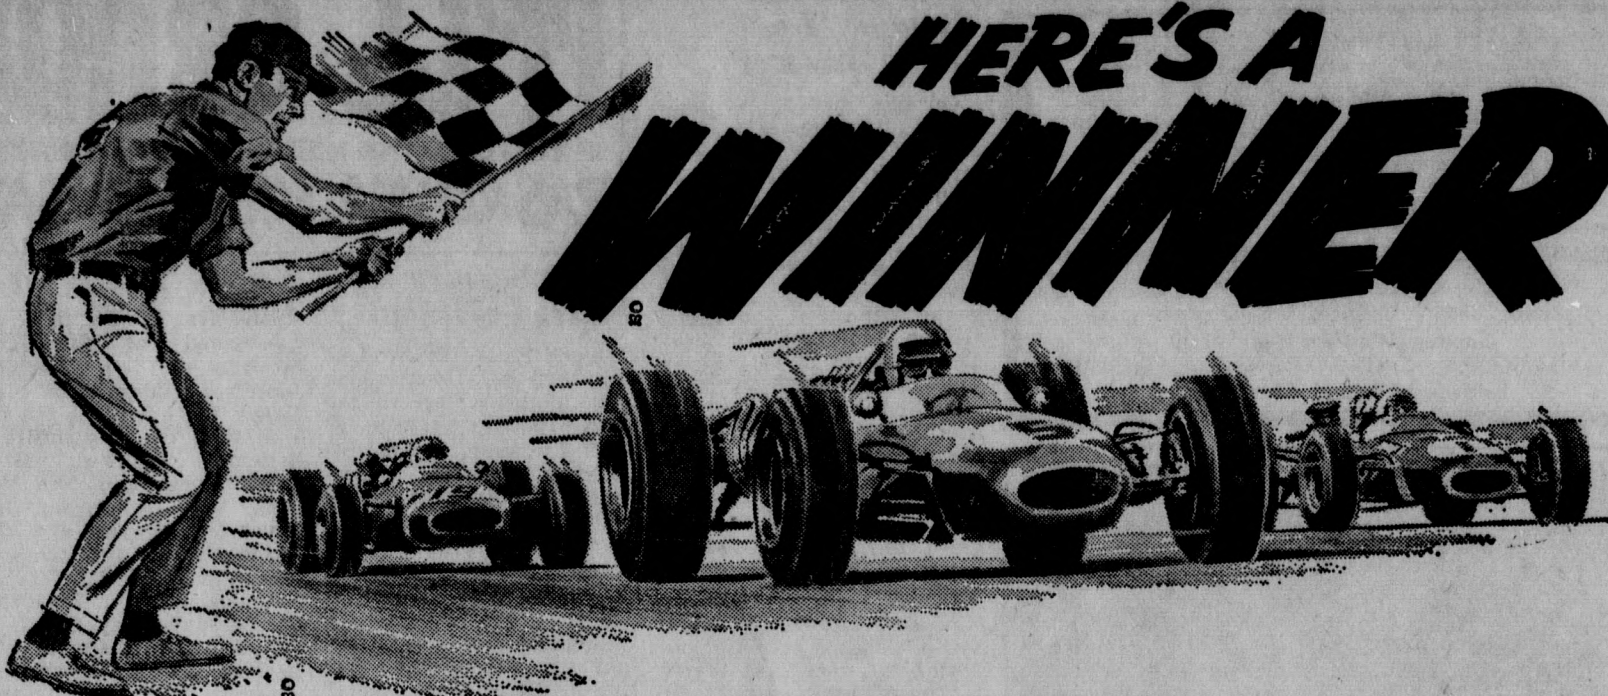

— CT —
We will close up the column this week with the following remarks . . . "One of the things that gripes us most, and to no end, is that various groups and individuals who declare their right to FREE SPEECH and demonstration but deny that same right to their opponents." We will be seeing you at the Art Fair May 18-19, I hope, I hope, I hope.

You and Your Neighbor

by NANCY BRYAN

On April 11, 19 ladies attended a luncheon honoring Mrs. David (Rita) Howell in the Garden Room of a local restaurant. Those present were: Mrs. Hiram Embree, Mrs. Robert Bottencourt, Mrs. Kenneth Carlson, Mrs. Richard Keppeler, Mrs. Huston Denslow, Mrs. Robert Jenkins, Mrs. Paul Narco-wich, Mrs. Bruce Peppin, Mrs. Effa Schregardus, Mrs. Louise Misemer, Mrs. Frances Gardner, Mrs. Katherine Koonz, Mrs. Ruth Marsh, Mrs. Marian Peterson, Mrs. Geneva Hoskins, Mrs. Mar-jorie Green, Mrs. Crouchley, Miss Elizabeth McKinney and, of course, Mrs. Howell.

Stephen and Grace Cox and their three children of 143 N. Lima, are planning on moving to Chicago area.

The Coxes who have lived in Sierra Madre for 3½ years, have their home up for sale and have been selling all items of furniture that are easily replaced. Both Stephen's and Grace's families live in the Midwest, in fact, Grace's mother, Mrs. D. Provenzano flew here last weekend to take the three youngsters — Julie, 5, Donnie, 4, and Joseph, 4 months — back to Chicago now so that mom and dad can settle things here more easily. The grandparents are thrilled to pieces about having the grandchildren with them — it will be the first time they have seen little Joseph. Stephen and Grace will drive back to Chicago when all the loose ends are tied up. Good luck to you all!

'Fourth Of July Fun-Fest' Set

Total family fun, with patriotic overtones, will comprise this year's Thrill-O-Rama and Fireworks Spectacular to be presented in the Los Angeles Coliseum on the night of the 4th of July by the Los Angeles County Council of The American Legion, according to Dick Pittenger, Legion director of special events.

"No speeches are planned for the show," the director smilingly stated. "It will be designed for 100 per cent entertainment value from the 5 p.m. start of a junior baseball game to the fabulous fireworks finale at 9:45."

Action, excitement, thrills, color and comedy will be the ingredients of the Independence Day extravaganza. Following the baseball game, a grand entry parade of stars will be presented at 7 o'clock. An action-packed thrill-o-rama is slated for 7:30. At 8:30 the LAPD Motorcycle Drill Team will appear in a "red lights and siren" performance, and at 8:45, the evening will be climaxed by an hour-long presentation of the world's greatest fireworks spectacular.

This year's show theme will be a salute to south-land service clubs. It will feature tributes in fireworks to the members of the outstanding Southern California organizations who are constantly giving of their time and energy in support of the community and its people.

As in the past, proceeds from the show ticket sale will go to American Legion charities. Any questions concerning the show should be directed to the Legion County Council office at 747-5341.

Out of the Cobwebs

P. J. Benson of Sacramento has purchased the First Water Camp from Lee Tighe and took possession of the Big Santa Anita resort this week. Mr. Benson is the father-in-law of Frank Lohwasser, an old friend of Mr. Tighe and an enthusiastic patron of the camp for years past. The camp has been operated for a year or more by Graves and Son but Mr. Tighe, who is now in the insurance business in Los Angeles, took it over again recently. The location at the first stream crossing of the Sturtevant Trail makes it a landmark, and Mr. Benson proposes to make it more popular than ever.

T. J. Burns, 65 East Laurel Avenue, was the first purchaser of a new Essex coupe from the newly established Blayne Motor Company Agency in the bank building. The car had hardly become well settled in the display room before Mr. Burns came along and decided to buy it.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steinberger have moved from 75 North Baldwin to the Hildebrandt house at 429 Mariposa Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Poehler, accompanied by Miss Poehler of Los Angeles and Mrs. Frankenfield of Whittier, attended the Ramona Pageant at Hemet Sunday. They left here prepared for the hot sands of the desert, but upon their arrival found the valley to be as chilly as that country gets. Nevertheless, they enjoyed the unique play immensely.

Bagdasar K. Baghdigian, noted writer and health lecturer of Kansas City, Mo., was a canyon visitor several days during the past week.

Police arrest five on narcotics charge—nab three in the Canyon, two in the parking lot behind local market. All five men who were arrested were turned over to the Narcotics Division of the County Sheriff's Department.

Bobby Osti came home from a successful San Diego fishing trip (his usually are) with bags of yellow-tail — and his friends are still smacking their lips over his fishy gifts.

Local "Dads & Lads" (an independent off-shoot of the old Indian Guides) rocketed to a Sunday picnic on the Nike base at Mt. Wilson — and the outing came off without a missile.

The patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pursley, 1125 Daveric, was recently converted into a "German Beer Garden" for the entertainment of their friends.

Among those enjoying the refreshments and dancing the polka were Mr. and Mrs.

Another party! This time the party was a surprise farewell dinner and this time in honor of both the Rev. and Mrs. David Howell and their son, John. The dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carlson on the occasion of the Howells leaving to live in Redwood City. Rev. Howell is with the Congregational United Church of Christ as senior minister.

How that many people managed to keep a surprise party a real surprise is a wonder! Good luck to the Howells!

Jack Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ribert Bremer, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Halstead, Mr. and Mrs. John Merrill and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wells.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Langstaff, Dr. and Mrs. Philip Winsor, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pankow, Mr. and Mrs. George Mackey and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Miller Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Sorenson of 3300 Calvert Road were seen with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bignell at the Coconut Grove enjoying the music of the incomparable Nat King Cole.

What would you do if you won a $20,000 race horse? Mrs. Walter V. Dorn Jr. of 1620 Sierra Madre Villa has just won the Kentucky Club Derby Day Contest sponsored by the Mail Pouch Tobacco Co. Her choice for the name of the horse was "Hasty Transit." Mr. and Mrs. Dorn were flown back to the Derby last week as guests and took official possession of the horse. They were honor guests on Derby Day and appeared on TV. As the cliché goes, why didn't I think of that myself?

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the title of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Ephesians: "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light."

The Lesson-Sermon also contains these lines from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Son of the Virgin-mother unfolded the remedy for Adam, or error; and the Apostle Paul explains this warfare between the idea of divine power, which Jesus presented, and mythological material intelligence called energy and opposed to Spirit."

Edward Cardiel, son of John and Frances Cardiel made his first Communion on Saturday, April 27 at La Salle High School. Edward, his little brother Arthur and his parents live at 242 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Something for nothing.

Free checking account when you get your car loan from us.

This is your big chance to steal from a bank. Get your car loan here (minimum $1000) and get a personal checking account, with no service charge at all for the length of the car loan. That comes to about $30 a year saved in those blasted service charges alone.

That's the least of it. An even greater saving is on the car loan itself. Dealing with the bank direct, there's no middleman, no markup on finance charges. You can save from 1% to 3% interest. (Depends on whether the car is new or used, how much you put down, etc.) Say you save 1½%. That may not sound whopping, but figure it out on a $3800 car, with $1300 down, on a 36-month loan. You save $112.50 cold cash. Now do you see why it's worth looking us up in the phone book and coming on in?

Yes-men. We push car loans hard, we pare the interest way down, we have every reason to say "Yes" when you apply. After all, we'd never get anywhere sitting around saying "No" to people.

The Private Chatterbox.

You and your favorite telephone partner are right in the middle of a juicy tête-à-tête and oops! Her K-I-L-D-S just W-A-L-K-E-D in. They're hanging around the kitchen noisily making cream cheese and jelly sandwiches. So rather than continue with a conversation that could wind up sounding like a spelling bee, she says she'll call you back when she can talk.

The next time that expert disher-of-dirt has a birthday, you couldn't get her a more appropriate gift than a private chatterbox for her bedroom.

It's freedom of speech for anyone who likes to talk a lot.

One call to your General Telephone business office takes care of the whole thing. We play up the gift idea by sending out a miniature toy phone with a gift card first. That's just to let her know the real phone is on its way.

Once her extension phone is installed she'll be able to say what she wants when she wants to—without an audience—and without having to spell things O-U-T.

Then, Ann uses only parts of various bones and a little putty to get the effect she wants. She never knows what she'll come up with when she starts a "Dem Bones"; each one is entirely different. At the urging of her friends and family, Ann recently marketed her creations, complete with appellation tags and has placed a quantity of her original creations in a local gift gallery in Monrovia. FROM THE Fire Side

There was another one of the weird things the other day. There was an electrical fire in a local shop and the fire marshal was called; it just so happened that he was out of town and the fire inspector was rousted from his bed (after only an hour's sleep) to respond. The chief was called and the biter part of the whole thing was their were two firemen right next door to the smoke-filled store that could have taken the call. Oh well, that's the way it goes some days. Besides, too much sleep isn't good for Don. By now he's learned to get along on a maximum of 40 winks.

Heck, Don, next time be sure you have your belt, badge and socks on, and comb the hair, you may be giving the department a bad impression.

Just two night before that one of the reserves, who travels quite a distance to answer the alarms got off to a good running start to an alarm that didn't exist. It's probably just a well, he needed the practice.

Larry Brennan sure has been having his problems here lately. First he gets a good splattering from mud at the Friday night drill and he looked like he had measles then on Wednesday night during a hose test he got soaked from a bursting hose. He says there must be a conspiracy on. But that's just a life of a captain in a volunteer department.

We hear that Joe Signorino and Ron Hall are both ready to trade in their fire caps for yachting caps. Both have become proud boat owners, recently and the nautical terms that they come up with are really something.

Although Ron must be a little confused. He thought the "poop deck" was where Don Burleson hangs out. They sound like the modern days version of Captain Kidd or some other pirate. But then a guess that could be called true "type casting" as they sure do fit the part.

Shopping Bag

The new 116-page Blue Chip Stamp merchandise catalog, featuring (for the first time) women's fashions, menswear, automotive and pet supplies, is now available at Shopping Bag.

The full-color catalog contains 2094 items, 143 more than last year. Catalina sportswear, cashmere sweaters, Cantece stockings, and Arrow shirts are among the new merchandise, along with facial saunas, Water Piks and physical fitness equipment.

In addition, exciting new colors — and a greater color choice — are available in towels, sheets (1967's most popular redemption item), bedding and housewares.

Eight million new catalogs have been printed for stamp savers in California and Nevada.

The cover, a still life of a bountiful California crop, was painted by noted San Francisco artist George Sheppard. A framed reproduction is available through the catalog.

Senior Citizens

Freislinger, read the minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report was given by Pearl Patterson. Lucy Fergin, corresponding secretary, told of members she had sent cards to and on the progress of the patients in the hospital.

Minette Ring, tour chairman, told of trips being offered and of the enjoyable time the group had on the desert trip this last week.

After the business meeting the group adjourned for a program. Betty Doerfling, of the Southern Counties Gas Co. showed pictures of the Amish Country in Pennsylvania and talked about the food from the American Heritage Cook Book and demonstrated one of the recipes, Drechter Koocha (Funnel Cakes). After the program there were three tables of progressive bridge.

nothing to do with the future hiring of a City Administrator. Mr. Dennis is not up for consideration.

Before adjournment Mayor Rule announced that five study items would appear on the next agenda, and the Council must take the time to dispose of them as soon as possible: 1. Monastery Debris Basin. 2. Water main replacement program. 3. N.C.R. Accounting procedures, purchase or continual renting. 4. Master Plan, and 5. Konkler Swimming Pool.

The next regular meeting will be May 14, at the hour of 7:30 p.m.

Pick-A-Theme

The 1969 Tournament of Roses theme will be "A Time To Remember." The winning entry in Sierra Madre's theme contest will be judged as being the one most likely to give the city of Sierra Madre a prize-winning float in the 1969 Tournament of Roses. The winner will be presented with two tickets to the New Year's Rose Bowl Football Game by the Association at their formal Open House ceremonies to be held at the construction tent in December.

Influence!

President Johnson's dramatic announcement that he does not intend to run for re-election was a political bombshell to most people. The sudden withdrawal of Governor Romney from the Presidential campaign on the eve of the New Hampshire primary puzzled and surprised a great many people. Equally surprising was the apparent withdrawal of Governor Rockefeller, whom many had expected to announce his candidacy for the Presidency momentarily. There are those, of course, who believe Rockefeller is still very much in the running, but the fact remains that officially he is no longer an avowed candidate for President of the United States in the election to take place this fall.

Why do men of the stature of Lyndon Johnson, Governor Romney and Governor Rockefeller, all old hands at political campaigning, suddenly step aside in a Presidential contest that has barely begun? Part of the answer may be found in the growing tendency of politicians to stake their careers on the finding of polls, both public and private. The question of the influence of polls and the methods of pollsters in sounding out public opinion was the subject of a highly interesting feature in The National Observer, entitled, "How Pollsters Make or Break Candidates." It is entirely conceivable that the power of the polls may influence political trends and the choice of candidates and office holders in a very substantial way, although in the case of Mr. Johnson, only history may reveal the complex reasons for his decision. Governor Romney on the other hand appears to have retired from the Presidential race in the New Hampshire primary on the strength of a series of private polls which showed him running far behind Richard Nixon.

In the words of The National Observer, "... no top politician would be without polls these days. But Governor Romney has unusual faith in them..." Many professional politicians, as well as laymen, believe that not only do the polls influence the careers of political candidates, but they also influence voters. Polltakers strongly disagree on the latter, pointing out that if polls produced a bandwagon effect on elections, "... there would be no such thing as a wrong poll, and there have been plenty of them."

In 1936, the famed Literary Digest poll predicted that Alf Landon would defeat Franklin Roosevelt with 57 per cent of the vote. Instead, the Kansas Governor got only 37.5 per cent, and carried only two states. Years later, the polls were wrong again when they predicted that Thomas Dewey would defeat Harry Truman. In spite of these classic miscalculations, polltaking has become an increasingly scientific business. The chance for error has been cut to a mathematical minimum. Private or confidential polls, in the view of The National Observer, which today are relied upon by political candidates, "... can be useful. To ignore them can be damaging; one of Mr. Nixon's 1960 campaign managers insists that if he had heeded his confidential poll that showed Illinois evenly divided and campaigning intensively there, Mr. Nixon might have carried the state—and the election. Instead he went to Alaska."

In the months immediately ahead, between now and the election of a president in November, there is no doubt but that polls will exercise a heavy influence—if recent actions of candidates may be taken as a guide for the future. Polltaking is becoming so scientific there is even talk of a simulator, a technique employing a high-speed computer filled with information from old polls. "Some day," concluded The Observer, "the experts say, the simulator will be able to give immediate answers on what the public will think about an event that hasn't even occurred. When that day comes, politicians will be spared the danger of taking steps in the dark. The voters may or may not be more enlightened."

May Day

How far we have come from the time when May Day was the occasion for baskets of flowers placed lovingly on the doorsteps of good friends, the Maypole, and Tennyson's "Call me early, Mother dear... for I'm to be Queen of the May."

The Russians took it over as the feast day of their revolutionary power. It became the warning cry of dire emergencies. And today, with all the atoms throbbing in their silos waiting for the panic button, a cynical, somewhat frightened world says, "May Day? Maybe!"

Despite potential Armageddon, can't we relive the natural happiness of the day that ushers in those flowers made possible by April's showers? Is it too, too straight, too square to greet the "merrie month" with hope and pleasant anticipation? Pray not!

Money? Hmph!

The activists among our youth, the professional hippies, the campus ring-a-lings aren't necessarily the most worrisome element the nation has to deal with. In a recent issue, the San Francisco Chronicle's Question Man, asked a number of unemployed young people how they lived without money. Consider the answers:

"I get money from my parents, my uncle, society, from most anywhere."

"I sit around and wait for something to happen. Your friends feed you when you're broke."

"It's easy. Lots of places give you free food, and I stay with friends so I don't have to pay rent."

"I don't know who buys the groceries. Somebody does."

"Money isn't important. If I need it I get it from friends."

No, money isn't important; so long as there are people challenge the future and make it better, perhaps, for every hearted—and soft-headed—enough to pay your way for you!

Thank heavens for the great majority of youngsters who find zest in life, along with its problems; who seek guidance and learning, not handouts, so that they can challenge the future and make it better, perhaps, for every one.

Fool's Day

There are many who contend that the fifteenth, not the first, should be April Fool's Day. And what with some of the tax changes we face up to this year, they may have a point.

But whatever the date, it is well in this strange era of ours to commemorate those who step in where angels fear to tread, who are soon parted from their money, who are old, who are wise until they speak, as the sayings go. It would be well, too, on this day of tricks and jests to heed Thomas Fuller's warning: "To make a trade of laughing at a fool is the highway to become one."

by DR. HENRY V. WITTY

How many of us have asked in dismay: "My God, how can these things be happening in America?"

How many of us have been shocked into a state of passive acceptance of what we have been told is our inevitable future?

How many of us have lost faith in everything solid and in what we KNOW to be right just because we are constantly "reminded" that we are "out of step" and "alone"? Alone in what? In wanting to protect and preserve our way of life in America?

How many of us believe that each of us is nothing more than a wee small voice in the wilderness.

How many of us are convinced that we are just faint whimpers in a faceless mass of victims of an all-consuming "welfare state" perpetuated by forces over which we have no control?

Come now. We really know better than that. We are not sobbing weak sisters. We are, and always have been, the backbone of America. It's about time the backbone gets mad and begins to guide and control the rear end of the animal. Yes, I said mad. No apology offered. We should begin to fight, and fight hard, to regain—and control—the America we want for our children and our children's children!

It's time that we indicate in no uncertain terms (through the ballot) that the course of America must be altered to the right. Clare McCord, editor of the California Elk, has been shocked into the exclamation: "My God, how can it be?" McCord's remarks are herewith presented with the hope that they may somehow awaken in a few the necessity for a change—in the right direction. At least, that there be an awakening to the necessity of individual responsibility and action to combat the degradation of our present society.

My God, How Can It Be... That one boy lies rotting from malnutrition and torture in a jungle prison camp in North Vietnam—and another boy spits and tramples on the flag of his country on the steps of a university of learning? That one boy lies sightless in a U.S. Naval Hospital from Communist-inflicted face wounds—and another boy uses a Communist in defiance of the laws of this country? That one man of medicine begins his thirtieth straight hour standing over an operating table in pursuit of life for men serving their country—and another man of medicine (Dr. Spock) implores crowds of young men to refuse to serve their country?

That one Negro holds the face of his dead white comrade in his arms and cries pitifully in a dirty mudhole in Vietnam—and another Negro screams with hate against his white brother on the streets of countless American cities?

That one boy lies in a coffin beneath the ground because he believed in duty to country—and another boy lies on a dingy cot giving blood to the enemies of his country?

That one man of God shields a wounded boy from an enemy bayonet with his own body and dies—and another man of "God" uses his cloth as a shield to preach hate, dissension and lawlessness?

MY GOD, HOW CAN IT BE? There you have it. The paradox of our times. No, we do not have to be victims of an inevitable future. We are now out of step and alone (We just think so, sometimes.) We are not wee small voices in the wilderness. (We can be loud, clear and powerful.) We do not have to be faint whimpers in a faceless mass of victims, nor do we have to be sobbing weak sisters. It's all up to us. We are what we are willing to sacrifice to make of ourselves. And if we stiffen up our backbones, our children will not have to say: "My God, how can it be?"

Mr. Monte Mansfield from Tucson, Arizona, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Thatcher the past week.

Some of the athletes who thought they had more or less of a sure thing in the big race up Mt. Wilson last week and found out to their sorrow that the "sure thing" was toward the rear, are now beginning to train in earnest for the next race.

Paul Reinwald, who refused to train seriously for the first race, is now working out on the trail for the next event six months away. He has evidently decided that he was not mortally disgraced by his last performance or else he is getting ready to retrieve his honors.

Last Sunday Reinwald made a score that now stands next to Soldier King. He made the ascent in one hour, 35 minutes, which is ten minutes slower than King's time. It remains to be seen whether or not he can let out enough notches of speed to close up the gap in six months of training.

Charles Hanlon, the Pasadena YMCA boy, also made the ascent. He took about four minutes longer than in the race, making the ascent in one hour, 44 minutes.
